"At Stokes Wood Primary School the health and safety, safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all children is of paramount importance."

Mrs Rood/Mrs O'Halloran's Y5 class are Taking part in a Mini-Police pilot project. The aims of the project are to familiarise Children with the supportive nature of the Community police force; to work with the police to support people in our community, for example the elderly in the local care home and to generally find out more about the police. Today they received their caps, jackets and notebooks and took the oath in their Police Assertion. Special guests were the Deputy PCC and a senior police officer.
